

Gregory C. Zurakowski, P.E. | Forensic Mechanical Engineer

33955 Harper Avenue, Clinton Township, MI 48035

586.868.0220

gregory.zurakowski@efiglobal.com

Professional Summary:

Mr. Zurakowski specializes in design, development and production implementation of diesel engine emissions, control systems for heavy duty on-highway trucks, off-highway construction and agricultural equipment, marine applications and diesel locomotives.

Licenses and Certifications:

Licensed Professional Engineer, Michigan #6201031056

Professional Experience:

EFI Global /Unified Investigations & Sciences, Forensic Mechanical Engineer, 2013 – Present
Westminster Presbyterian Church/Grand Lake Community Chapel, Co-pastor, 2015 - Present
Belleville Presbyterian Church, Minister, 2010 – 2015
Tenneco, Inc., Program Engineering Manager, 2006 - 2009
Ford Motor Company, Engineering/Program Manager, 2002 – 2006
Ford Motor Company, Program Management Supervisor, 1998 – 2002
Ford Motor Company, Section Supervisor, Thermal/Aero Systems, 1993 – 1998
Ford Motor Company, Section Supervisor, Engine Laboratories, 1991 - 1993
Ford Motor Company, Product Design Engineer, Car Chassis Engineering, 1989 – 1991
Rockwell International Automotive Components, Project Engineer, Driveline Division, 1985 – 1988
Chrysler Corporation, Product Engineer, Transmission Engineering, 1980 – 1985
United States Coast Guard Reserve, Commissioned Officer, 1982 – 200

Specialized Education:

Asbestos Operator & Maintenance Initial Course, JMS Asbestos Training Center & Environmental Service, 2014

Education:

Master of Science Degree, Engineering Management, Wayne State University, Detroit, MI, 1995