

Professional Summary:

Sebastian Hebert is a Project Manager with EFI Global dealing with environmental remediation, environmental site assessments and emergency spill response. He received his Bachelor of Engineering in Environmental Engineering from Carleton University in Ottawa, Ontario. Sebastian is an Engineer in Training with the Association of Professional Engineers and Geoscientists of Alberta (APEGA) and has gained valuable experience working in environmental remediation, monitoring, assessment, and indoor air quality.

Areas of Expertise:

- Project management; Coordination and oversight
- Remediation of environmentally impacted sites
- Asbestos, lead, PCBs & hazardous building material identification and removal

Education:

- B.Eng., Environmental Engineering, Carleton University, Ottawa, ON, 2020

Certifications:

- Workplace Hazardous Material Information System (WHMIS)
- Fall Arrest Safety Training
- Mobile Elevated Work Platforms Safety Training
- Ground Disturbance
- Transportation of Dangerous Goods (TDG)
- Canada Red Cross Standard First aid, CPR/AED Level-C
- Occupational Health and Safety for the Asbestos Worker